Description of Change:

Phoenix Contact WMS series is UL recognized with a flammability rating of "All Tubing".

To optimize printability requirements, our shrink sleeves and tubing (WMS series) now has a slight reduction of the amount of flame retardant used in the polymer formulation. Previously, the material carried a rating of VW-1. The new material was submitted to UL for testing and achieved a rating of "All Tubing" as found on file E310982. The new rating information and the new version code are printed on the packaging label for the WMS parts.
