Announcement of the factory relocation and address change

Dear Sir/Madam

We would like to announce that TAMURA ELECTRONICS (S.Z.) CO.,LTD. (TAMURA Shenzhen factory) will be transferred to a new location by the requirement of Shenzhen Government and the Landlord's intention. The existing rental contract of today will be expired by end of 2020. Due to the requirement, our company has taken a decision to transfer the factory to a new location in Shenzhen as follows,
We sincerely would like to have your understanding and cooperation.

1. Impacted Products   All current sensors

2. Schedule of moving to new factory location

    by end Aug 2020
    Production will be stopped and transferred each one by one line from existing factory.

    in Sep 2020
    All the Production Equipment will be moved and prepared for starting production in Oct 2020

    All the production will be started in the new factory

    The schedule can be moved before and after by the status of the transfer condition.
    We sincerely would like to have your understanding and cooperation.
