General Product Description:

Plastic material and colour change at D2N Relay series

Description of Changes

Dear Customer, following our engagement for continuous product improvement we are changing the plastic material for the D2N (V23105...) Relay series. Because of this plastic material change we also have to change the colour of the D2N Relays. New colour will be black with white marking. The new black D2N Relays will be UL approved and they will have again the UL marking on the cover.

Reason for Changes:

Product improvement.
