09990000808 → Stripping Tool 0.03-10 mm² self adjusting

2. Reason for Termination

A duplicate newer stripping tool, 09990000980, is available to purchase

3. Possible Replacement Products

As an alternative to the terminated tools, we have the stripping tool 09990000980 in our portfolio which covers the complete range of functions. This tool offers a high quality stripping for flexible wires up to 16.0 mm² and solid wires up to 6.0 mm² with PVC insulation. Different stripping blades can be changed quickly and without the help of tools. The integrated storage of the different blades in the handle offers the operator a high flexibility at any time. Equipped with a smart self-adjustment of all cross sections and an additional "POWERPLUS" for special cables, fatigue-free work for the operator is possible at any time.
