The movable terminal holder makes it easy to set the terminals.

About maintenance support for old and new products

Regarding repair after-sales service when the old product is damaged, it will be difficult to repair the manufacturer and supply parts because the manufacturer will be switched. So we will support it for three years (until August 31, 2023). However, please understand in advance that we will not be able to respond after that. We will respond to inspections without a deadline. In addition, regarding the repair of the replacement product, it is not realistic considering the cost and delivery time for shipping when the manufacturer base repairs because the production base is overseas, so please understand in advance that we can not accept repair correspondence. For inspection, we will support the same as the old product.
