

Turonic Massage Gun helps to recover after a workout, improves blood flow, and removes post-exercise swelling and pain!

Deep Tissue Massage Gun - Get instant muscle relief with Turonic percussion massage gun: work through knots and swellings after a workout as efficiently as a professional therapist would; massager has the intensity of 1200-3200 rpm: it reaches sore spots in 11 mm-depth, improves blood flow, and helps you relax

Full Body Work - Get rid of stiffness and pain after a workday: with 7 replaceable heads and 5 intensity modes, you can relax rigid muscles after a day in the office or a workout

Easy to Use - switch between modes with one button and quickly replace heads for different muscles; the interface is super simple: there are just 2 indicators for battery and the current mode

Quiet with Long Battery Life - noise level is 45 dB: quieter than a casual chat; bring it to the gym or office and don't worry about charging: it works up to 8 hours without it

Anti-Cellulite Effect - don't give up on problem areas. The special head has lifting effect, promotes weight loss, and improves the skin quality

KEY FEATURES:

- Powerful deep tissue massage gun with 11 mm depth amplitude; efficient for lower back pain relief; 5 intensity modes range 1200 to 3200 rpm.
- Complex bodywork: 7 heads for different muscle groups includes a special anti-cellulite head.
- Minimalistic, user-friendly design: switch between modes with one button; there are two light indicators: for battery life and the current intensity mode.
- Easy and comfy to use: ergonomic design allows you to use Turonic Massage Gun for a long time without getting tired of holding it; head replacement takes no more than 3 seconds; Turonic Massage Gun turns off automatically after 10 minutes of using it - it's the time you'd usually need to relax properly - but you can use longer if you want.
- It's really quiet: Turonic Massage Gun sounds at 45 dB, whereas casual conversation volume is 66 dB, and a phone rings at 75 dB.
